TWO NEW LINES INSPIRED BY YOU

I have a great appreciation and gratitude for those of you who have partnered with me on this journey to grow our businesses together with my brand - some since day 1, nine years ago!

The creativity and uniqueness of my art along with its organic and timeless appeal continues to set it apart on the shelf. But when it comes to new product development, I value your comments and suggestions since you're on the front lines of consumer feedback.

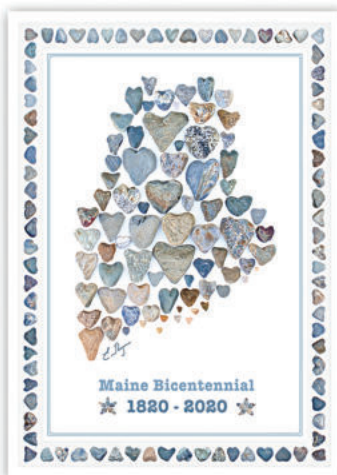

And so, inspired by you, I'm excited to offer new playing cards and mugs. I've discovered a New England manufacturer who has the ability to print these products on demand with 100% solar power as well as drop-ship. You'll see some of my top-selling designs on the opposite page as suggestions, but as I've noted there, any design (including your custom art) can be printed on these two new lines.

MAINE BICENTENNIAL

If you're a Maine merchant, this limited-edition print in both sizes is ready to rock.

The design has also been made into playing cards, and the mug features the Maine map on the front and back with the Bicentennial text (shown here) positioned vertically in between.

The Bicentennial magnet introduced last year is also available (see pg. 2).

NEW ARTIST BIO DISPLAY

"Is it a watercolor painting? Is it photoshopped? Are those real heart rocks?" You may be answering these questions as well, so to help with that, I've had rigid 5x7 cards made which explain the LRM story and process. A little heart-shaped stand will allow you to prop it up next to the products to help with merchandising. They'll be included in all opening orders this Spring.

Here's to our best year yet!
